1. New Web Page for Delegations, Policies and Processes

A reminder that a new web page has been established for publication of the new delegations, policies and processes that support the new University operating model: http://www.policy.unimelb.edu.au/policy-library/new-policies.html

Policies and processes published on the new web page are categorised as follows:

- Academic programs and governance
- Employment
- Facilities, IT systems and OHS
- Finance and legal
- Governance and engagement
- Research and information assets
- Students and learning

Many policies and procedures are still available in the Melbourne Policy Library. These are currently under review and will be archived as they are replaced by new versions published on the web page referred to above.
